

Community Services

Join us and make a difference in our communities

West Sussex County Council is a diverse organisation that provides services to more than 850,000 residents every day. As one of the main employers in the County, we have a number of responsibilities as a local authority and work with partner organisations to deliver our services to improve the lives of West Sussex residents.

About this area

Employees in this area work closely with customers in the community services that we provide. These services include libraries, record offices, events and ceremonies. The County Council also has a responsibility to register all births, deaths and marriages, as well as organising UK citizenship ceremonies. Our contact centre also plays a huge role in supporting our residents, providing them with information and directing them to the support that they require.
