

Education and Schools

Join us and make a difference in our communities

West Sussex County Council is a diverse organisation that provides services to more than 850,000 residents every day. As one of the main employers in the County, we have a number of responsibilities as a local authority and work with partner organisations to deliver our services to improve the lives of West Sussex residents.

About this area

Employees in this area are responsible for providing education for children and young people. As well as schools, we also provide support for admissions, attendance, safeguarding, transport, and home education. In addition, we also ensure there is adequate support for parents and children who have special educational needs (SEN) as well as aiming to improve educational experiences and outcomes for those children who are looked after by WSCC – ultimately giving our residents the best start in life.
