Details of Duties
To support other volunteers and library staff to provide a service to library visitors:
- Helping families register for the Summer Reading Challenge, which may include guiding them to use a computer, tablet or smartphone
- Explaining to families how the Challenge works
- Talking to children about the books they have been reading
- Encouraging children to progress through the Challenge by reading more books, helping them choose books and find new things to read
- Giving out stickers and other rewards, preparing certificates and awarding medals for children that complete
- Assisting with art displays, activities or storytimes if required
- Supporting other basic library jobs during quieter periods, e.g. shelving or tidying books

Regularity of Duties
The ideal commitment is a minimum of 10 hours during July and August, but there can be flexibility in choosing days and times within this period.

Guidance and Support
Volunteers will work alongside library staff who can provide general support and help. Families and Wellbeing Librarians and other senior staff visit libraries during the summer and can offer additional guidance.

Training and Equipment
As part of this role, all volunteers will be invited to an information meeting to find out what is involved, how the Challenge works and how to talk with children about books and reading. There is also a chance to meet library staff and other volunteers. On some occasions this training may be provided on a one-to-one basis (e.g. in a small village library).

Disclosure & Barring Service check (DBS)
Those applying for this role will not be asked to complete the DBS process.

References
One reference will be required prior to the volunteer undertaking the role. This can be supplied by a recent employer, a teacher, college tutor or another volunteer placement advisor. It should not be a family member.

Other Information
If you are under-16 you will also need a signed parental consent form, available online or at the information meeting. All volunteers are required to wear a lanyard whilst volunteering. An identity photograph is not required for Summer Reading Challenge volunteers.
